Host-To-Host service
QNB Host-To-Host new service provides a secure and efficient communication between QNB and your company's ERP system. It's perfect for organizations that require regular payments, reporting, and reconciliation processes especially large corporates and Multinationals

Benefits and features:

- All types of (local, international and payroll payments) transfers execution directly from your company's ERP system

- Real time update and receiving notifications upon processing the transaction

- Highest security standards applied

- Availability of service 24/7