

Investment Objective

The objective of the Fund is to generate a constant stream of cash flows by investing into Reverse Convertibles (RCs), Structured Notes, derivatives and cash or cash equivalent instruments.

Investment Strategy

The Fund will invest primarily in Auto-Callable Reverse Convertible and other Structured Notes related to equity, currency, commodities and indexes, derivatives and cash or cash equivalent instruments [for liquidity purposes]. The investment process is designed to harvest markets' volatility and convert it into cash flows whilst controlling the idiosyncratic risk of any single name investment exposure and the related business sector via concentration limits.

Major Fund Allocation changes

October saw net inflows of about $ 7.1m that were deployed in two new additional single RCs notes. Cash buffer was made available to pay the incoming dividend of 25 dollar cents per unit with ex-date 11th November and pay-date 14th November 2024. We expect further inflows in the first week of November 2024.

General Considerations on the stock market

During the month of October 2024, the reference benchmark index was marginally lower (-0.8%) whilst implied volatility jumped from 17% to 23%. The short term (12 months) dollar rates went from 4% to 4.3% whilst the issuer spread remained around 80bps for the same tenor: the overall markets impact on secondary market prices of outstanding RC notes was in aggregate negative but limited in size.

Important Risk Considerations
■ Counterparty risk a party that the Portfolio transacts with may fail to meet its obligations which could cause losses. ■ Custodian risk insolvency, breaches of duty of care or misconduct of a custodian or sub-custodian responsible for the safekeeping of the Portfolio's assets can result in loss to the Portfolio. ■ Derivatives risk derivative instruments are highly sensitive to changes in the value of the underlying asset that they are based on. Certain derivatives may result in losses greater than the amount originally invested. ■ Exchange rate risk changes in exchange rates may reduce or increase the returns an investor might expect to receive independent of the performance of such assets. If applicable, investment techniques used to attempt to reduce the risk of currency movements (hedging), may not be effective. Hedging also involves additional risks associated with derivatives. ■ Liquidity risk the Portfolio may not always find another party willing to purchase an asset that the Portfolio wants to sell which could impact the Portfolio's ability to meet redemption requests on demand. ■ Market risk the value of assets in the Portfolio is typically dictated by a number of factors, including the confidence levels of the market in which they are traded. ■ Operational risk material losses to the Portfolio may arise as a result of human error, system and/or process failures, inadequate procedures or controls. Complete information on the risks of investing in the fund are set out in the fund's Private Placement Memorandum
